

CircleRock's setting is the Presbyterian manse located across the street from the Circleville Presbyterian Church. It is a fully furnished spacious house, built in the early 1980's, with a large living room and eat-in kitchen, 5 bedrooms with beds for up to 16 people, three full baths, a large open room in the basement, and a new deck.

Circleville Presbyterian Church

- Natural attractions in the area include Spruce Knob (highest point in WV), Monongahela National Forest, Seneca Rocks, and Seneca Caverns.
- Several restaurants are within 15-20 miles.

- A book listing area attractions, restaurants, recreational opportunities, etc., is available at CircleRock.

CircleRock is a ministry of the Circleville and Seneca Rocks Presbyterian Churches and is funded by the gifts of its friends and those who use it.

The facility may be used by our guests at no cost to them. All donations will be used to cover basic costs such as heating, electricity, and laundry. Any gifts for this ministry are appreciated.

Fellowship in the country kitchen

Directions: Circleville, WV, is about 60 miles west of Harrisonburg, VA. From Harrisonburg, take 33 west through Franklin, WV. Continue on 33 west over North Mountain. At the foot of the mountain, take 28 south 3 miles to Circleville. In Circleville, turn at the sign for Circleville Presbyterian Church. CircleRock is a brick house directly across the street from the church. (From the north or northeast, go to Petersburg, WV, and take 28 south.)

For more information and/or to make reservations, contact Mary Bland (304-567-2208) or Jane Wilkins (304-567-2889 or jwilkins@spruceknob.net).

Relaxing on the spacious living room

*Listen, pray, walk, read, think,
dream, heal, respond .
Be!*

CircleRock Retreat Center

CircleRock is a place of retreat for

- Ministers and their families.
- Other church leaders and their families.
- Church groups from Shenandoah Presbytery, especially the Central Valley Mission Community.
- Ministry to families and individuals in the North Fork community in times of emergency or special needs.

May you find rest for your souls in the rock of our salvation.

CircleRock

P. O. Box 224
Circleville, WV 26804
304-567-2059

CircleRock

A Retreat Center at Circleville, West Virginia

*"The Lord is my rock,
my fortress,
and my deliverer,
my God, my rock,
in whom I take refuge."
II Sam. 22:2-3a*

A ministry of Circleville and Seneca Rocks
Presbyterian Churches