

We give gladly to help with hunger relief in many ways. Here are some of the programs supported through your contributions.

Doug Sensabaugh
Hunger Action Enabler
No. 16

Volunteer Farm of Shenandoah, is a project of the World Foundation for Children, a nonprofit charity located near Woodstock, VA. Since 2004, the Volunteer Farm has produced and supplied nearly 100 tons of fresh vegetables to the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank to help feed hungry neighbors in 25 counties and 9 cities in northwestern Virginia. During 2006 alone, the Farm produced more than 58,000 pounds of fresh vegetables. This year, they have planted 28 acres in hopes of providing even more nutritious food to the many children families and seniors who receive their food through the Food Bank and it's nearly 500 food pantries, soup kitchens Kids Cafes, and other outlets. Your vital support makes this possible.

The Volunteer Farm thanks all who have supported them in 2007 with volunteer time to plant and harvest, and all of those who have supported them financially and with prayer. They look forward to working together with you even more in 2008.

Hunters for the Hungry is a food program located in Big Island, VA, and processes mostly deer meat to be distributed to people who would otherwise not be able to afford meat in their diet. Hunters donate the deer to the program and it is then processed and distributed. Since the program began, three million pounds of meat has been donated providing 12 million servings of a wholesome meat. Funding provided from the presbytery's hunger program helps pay for the processing and distribution of the venison. Our unique location enables us to participate in this special way to help the hungry.

The Valley Mission located in Staunton, VA, performs a vital ministry within the Augusta County area. They serve the lonely, hungry and homeless in this community. They can house individuals, children and families for short periods of time until they are able to be on their own. During that time, the Mission helps feed them and seeks to serve their spiritual needs as well. Thank you all for your support of this vital ministry.

We give gladly to help with hunger relief in many ways. Here are some of the programs supported through your contributions.

Doug Sensabaugh
Hunger Action Enabler
No. 16

Volunteer Farm of Shenandoah, is a project of the World Foundation for Children, a nonprofit charity located near Woodstock, VA. Since 2004, the Volunteer Farm has produced and supplied nearly 100 tons of fresh vegetables to the Blue Ridge Area Food Bank to help feed hungry neighbors in 25 counties and 9 cities in northwestern Virginia. During 2006 alone, the Farm produced more than 58,000 pounds of fresh vegetables. This year, they have planted 28 acres in hopes of providing even more nutritious food to the many children families and seniors who receive their food through the Food Bank and it's nearly 500 food pantries, soup kitchens Kids Cafes, and other outlets. Your vital support makes this possible.

The Volunteer Farm thanks all who have supported them in 2007 with volunteer time to plant and harvest, and all of those who have supported them financially and with prayer. They look forward to working together with you even more in 2008.

Hunters for the Hungry is a food program located in Big Island, VA, and processes mostly deer meat to be distributed to people who would otherwise not be able to afford meat in their diet. Hunters donate the deer to the program and it is then processed and distributed. Since the program began, three million pounds of meat has been donated providing 12 million servings of a wholesome meat. Funding provided from the presbytery's hunger program helps pay for the processing and distribution of the venison. Our unique location enables us to participate in this special way to help the hungry.

The Valley Mission located in Staunton, VA, performs a vital ministry within the Augusta County area. They serve the lonely, hungry and homeless in this community. They can house individuals, children and families for short periods of time until they are able to be on their own. During that time, the Mission helps feed them and seeks to serve their spiritual needs as well. Thank you all for your support of this vital ministry.