

SALT Workshops:

There are 2 workshop blocks on Saturday. Please select 3 when registering.

1. We Go Together—How do we partner youth and adults together for creating Sunday evening programming, retreats, mission events and more? Charlie Lee will help you learn and craft ways to make YOUR youth ministry thrive by working together.
2. Healthy and Whole— You say Attention Youth! I say Intentional Youth! Youth ministry is multi-faceted, and not always about being entertaining. Mary Todd Peters will bring engaging activities that lead to discussions of what intentional Presbyterian youth ministry is and isn't, and help us create a healthy and whole program.
3. Recreation vs. Wreckreation—Join Lee Cross, co-creator of Recreation Express to resource your ministry with countless ideas but also to celebrate the theology of re-creation.
4. Called to What? —We all have gifts - some learned and some we are born with. But, how do I know what I am called to do and what if my gifts don't seem as good as others? Join Jody Moore for a look at YOUR gifts and talents— and ways God calls YOU to use them.
5. Out of the Box, Off the Shelf—How in the world do we take the B-i-b-l-e off the shelf and relate it to the 21st century? Blow off the dust and dig-in as Todd Davidson helps us find creative, practical and meaningful ways to bring the Bible into our youth ministries. “You can't teach what you don't know and you can't lead where you ain't going.”
6. Called Out of the Basement— A primary structure of youth ministries today can be described as a One-eared Mickey Mouse model; the “adult” church as the head, the “youth group” as an isolated, tangentially related ear. Join Nathan Peifer to consider ways to creatively re-form the One-eared Mickey Mouse model with concrete ideas and practices that will help us live together as Christ's one body.
